story

Born in Slovakia, raised by Mongolians, studied in Sweden, lived in Prague, with roots in Ukraine, Marek Bero is true Londoner.

Bass guitar is my life. I have been playing since I was fifteen and since then, I have been part of many amazing musical groups. I've played thousands of concerts and workshops, including festivals such as Sonisphere, Ozzfest, Simple Things, Dimension, and many more.

Since 2011 I have been part of the music scene in London, UK where I continue my musical career as a musical director, session player and bass tutor.

Yamaha Artist for more than seven years. As a professional bass player, I've been representing well-known music brands (Markbass, Mesa/Boogie, Ampeg, Jim Dunlop to name a few) on many music conferences, events and music workshops.

As a session player, I've been touring with many artists and bands in the EU and UK and recorded countless singles, EPs and albums. Recent years experiences include sessions in Assault&Battery, Dean Street Studios, Air/Edel, festivals We Are Out Here and Dimensions with Maximum Joy, Irish tours with Dirty Power, supporting Phil Rudd (ex AC/DC) and Mark Tremonti (Alter Bridge).

In 2017 I've co-founded Punt Guns band in new role of singer/songwriter. A meeting of minds and musical sensibilities that has forged a landscape of electronic rock, electronica and pop with yearning anthems that seek to bring new life to the darkest corners of our existence. Finding an alliance with producers Andy Wright and Gavin Goldberg (Simple Minds, Jeff Beck ...) Punt Guns have forged an apocalyptic sci-fi love epic album that will be released in autumn 2020.

Used to be heavily involved in music gear reviews. I have tested hundreds of instruments, amps, cabinets and effects (Muzikus, Music Store or frontman.cz), given out many personal & professional online and magazine reviews and recommendations as well as having published five bass method books, which are part of worldwide distribution through Bassline Publishing. My videos were featured in No Treble, Bass Players United, Bass Love and other bass community channels.
